Why does copyright in the church deserve your attention? As a legal reference, the term copyright is defined as an intellectual property right given to the creators of original musical, literary and dramatic works. So while copyright is a fairly straightforward concept, the details of copyright law can be confusing. And the administrative work for churches securing proper rights can be time-consuming.

Does your church:

- Project song lyrics?
- Print song sheets or song books?
- Record worship services?
- Use chord charts or lead sheets?
- Share audio tracks for rehearsal?
- Webcast worship services?

If so, CCLI can help to ensure your church is covered. And we can provide access to the world's greatest songs of worship. We'll show you how...

Simplifying Copyright.
Empowering Worship.
Enabling Discovery.

CCLI encourages worship within churches throughout the world. We empower affordable and legal expression by simplifying access to content, resources and media.

CCLI helps our customers to Discover, License and Worship.

EMPOWERING WORSHIP.

Copyright License: protect your church

CCLI ensures your church is covered. Simply and legally. Our Copyright License is tailored to your congregational singing activities and provides broad coverage for lyric storage, projections, song sheets, bulletin inserts, instrumental/vocal arrangements and service recordings. Optional rehearsal coverage enables duplication and sharing of commercial audio recordings and custom rehearsal tracks. Optional coverage is also available for streaming or podcasting recorded worship services.
